

CHRIST CHURCH EPISCOPAL IN HARWICH PORT

JOIN US FOR ADVENT STUDY AND MEDITATION

Advent Quiet Morning December 13

Please join the Rector for an Advent Quiet Morning (9am to noon) as we study Images of the Nativity in Art including paintings from the National Gallery of Art, the Museum of Fine Arts and the Metropolitan Museum of Art (while not leaving the Cape!) A light breakfast begins the time of study and prayer. Email the Church Office or call to register (christchurchharwichport@comcast.net) (508-432-1787). No fee required. Donations for breakfast willingly accepted. .

Fra Angelico and Fra Filippo Lippi detail: The Adoration of the Magi, c. 1440/1460 / Samuel H. Kress Collection, The National Gallery of Art.

Our new rector, The Rev. Dr. Judith A. Davis, cares deeply about the visual arts and the Church. She studied at the Yale Institute of Sacred Music, Worship and the Arts and has studied Christian art history as an avocation for several years. She is a member of the Capitol Hill Arts Workshop (Washington, DC), Christians in the Visual Arts and the Episcopal Church and the Visual Arts. She has essays in a forthcoming book on art and faith. A frequent workshop leader on art and faith, she enjoys painting watercolors.

Christ Church Episcopal
671 Route 28 (Main St)
Harwich Port, MA 02646

www.christ-church-episcopal.org (508) 432-1787

The Rev. Dr. Judith A. Davis, Rector